Santa Claus Pays An Early Visit To Historic Farmstead

New York City's oldest house – the Wyckoff Farmhouse – celebrated the Dutch tradition of Sinterklaas Saturday afternoon. Sinterklaas is also known as St. Nicholas Day, and good old St. Nick paid a special visit – on horseback - to the Brooklyn farmhouse, located at 5816 Clarendon Road. Those who participated in the festivities enjoyed treats, crafts and traditional music. Guests learned how the Dutch tradition evolved into the American tradition of Santa Claus.
