Hoppin' Down The Bunny Trail At Dutch Farmhouse

By Philip Ng

Families gathered Saturday afternoon at the Wyckoff Farmhouse Museum, located at 5816 Clarendon Road, to celebrate the Easter weekend with balloon sculptures, face painting, Easter egg hunts and various games. Children eagerly awaited the Easter Bunny's arrival, signaling the start of the Easter egg hunt, which children partook in sessions organized by age groups. Kids and teenagers who didn't participate in the Easter egg hunt were able to play oversized versions of popular board games, such as Connect 4, Uno, Jenga and Chess. Adults were treated to free tours of the Wyckoff Farmhouse Museum in guided groups. The event was sponsored by East Flatbush Village, Inc. and the Wyckoff Farmhouse Museum. You may see and purchase more photos from the event by visiting www.canarsiecourier.com.
